

The rest of your life can be better...go do it!

Mr. Bob Bertrand is an energetic man with an easy smile and outgoing personality. He is a consummate professional who owns Bertrand Financial Services, an established and reputable investment business. He always laughs and tells us his clients "smile" all the way to the bank, when doing business with him.

This is his story. "I never liked the uneven alignment of my bottom teeth or the discoloration of all my teeth over the years. I had lived with my two front teeth being capped since college football. My regular cleanings were a priority to me, I never neglected my teeth but unfortunately they were not as faithful. They began to loosen and I was afraid I would end up in dentures like my parents. I knew I needed the care of a dentist who made this type of problem the main focus of his profession. It was well known that Dr. Jirik could solve difficult situations like mine and I decided to see if he could do something for me, short of dentures.

The entire office atmosphere exudes professionalism and confidence in Dr. Jirik's work. His staff seems to really like what they do and make patients, like me, feel loved and cared for versus the manner usually found at busy dental offices. Dr. Jirik is an athletic and robust guy with whom I felt completely at ease immediately. I knew I would be buying him some "toys" with the money required for treatment but I could not think of a better person to pay for the reward I gained. Even when he made it clear that there were no guarantees in the beginning (for example with the bone grafting) I believed that if he thought the procedure was a positive step, I did too. Dr. Jirik's personality and confidence in what he could do for me sold me on the first visit...next deciding what I was willing to pay for that accomplishment was a brief process.

In my business, first impressions can make or break a client's confidence in me. If I cannot take care of myself, how can they trust me to take care of their finances in order for them to be able to care for themselves in the same manner should they need to in the future?

Naturally I would have loved to have spent "less", however since my condition was something I could not really have avoided by any better care over the years, I looked at the cost as an investment in my health as well as my appearance. As a bonus, my bad breath was extinguished...that had become a horrible side effect of the decay. I really expected to experience tons of visits and lots of pain...probably time off from the office. But that did not happen. It all came together in an incredibly short amount of time.

My smile appears to be natural...that was important to me. I am not a Hollywood figure, and I did not want to try to look like one."

Bob says, "For anyone out there who doesn't like their smile or they are losing their teeth...I don't think there is a better alternative than going to their savings and investing in themselves. I could never have predicted the pleasure I have, being able to enjoy my own smile. I know the treatment was the right thing for me. Believe me.. the rest of your life can be better... go do it.
